THE KEVIN CARR CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP AWARD

WHO IS KEVIN CARR?

Kevin Carr was the seventh president of Newman Theological College, from 1993-2001. He was the first layperson appointed to this position and during his tenure he was involved in a major restructuring and renewal of the College. Committed to a life of service, Carr's accomplishments include an extensive record of contributions to religious and professional organizations and to the broader community in a variety of roles. He most recently was a lead member in the team to perform the self-study for reaccreditation with the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE AWARD?

The Kevin Carr Christian Leadership Award exists to recognize and honour an individual whose outstanding Christian Leadership reflects the values of Newman Theological College and the qualities that Kevin Carr cherished and exhibited in his work as President.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE THE AWARD?

Any person who has provided significant leadership toward creating a Christian culture, and who leadership efforts have had a positive and lasting impact in western and northern Canada.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO NOMINATE?

Nominations are invited from individuals, businesses, organizations and community groups.

HOW DO I NOMINATE SOMEONE FOR THE AWARD?

Simply fill out the official nomination form on this brochure and attach it to the support material described below. Please refer to the checklist at the end of this brochure to ensure all items have been completed and are included in your nomination packages. No further information may be submitted.

SELECTION CRITERIA

AREAS OF CONTRIBUTION:

LEADERSHIP

Qualities that demonstrate the ability to provide direction and inspiration to efforts that have had positive effects in the community.

CHRISTIAN

The achievements of the nominee shall be concerned with the call to be a leaven in the work of transforming society and fostering a culture that demonstrates Christian values.

COMMUNITY

Implicit in the notion of Christian leadership is that it be communal, involving action by the community while building up and servicing society. This has been demonstrated through a long-term and proven commitment.

SUPPORT LETTERS

Three current letters required including one from the nominator.

NOMINEE PROFILE

A profile no longer than 3 pages is to be completed by the nominator. This should contain details on why the nominee's significant contributions in the areas of leadership and Christian service merit consideration for this award. Please refer to the selection criteria for guidance.

WHEN IS THE CLOSING DATE FOR NOMINATIONS?

All nominations must be received at Newman Theological College by 4:00 PM May 15th.
