Course Description

The contemporary problematic in Christology. The claims and challenges posed by Jesus in his preaching and life. His rejection, death, and resurrection. Jesus Christ as divine and human. Traditional and contemporary Christologies.

Course Objectives

The course objectives aim at addressing and promoting the integration of the following aspects: analysis, comprehension, knowledge, synthesis, application, and evaluation.

- a) Intellectual Formation - The course aims to bring students to a greater appreciation of the person and mission of Jesus Christ by presenting a modern, but scripturally based interpretation of Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection as the Incarnate Son of God. The course will foster the development of a thoughtful, critical mind—essential to doing theology as “faith seeking understanding”—in the context of the Church and world. The course will foster the practice of research and technical skills necessary to do acceptable theological reflection and work. The course will demonstrate the importance of Christology to other areas or branches (Scripture, Foundations, Moral/Spiritual/Pastoral). This objective aims to meet the Intellectual Formation Goal of the M. Div. Program and the M.T.S. Program Goal.

- b) Cultural Context - The course will promote an evangelical discernment of the 'signs of the times' to engage with the reality of cultural diversity in the Church and world through the lens of a Christology that will touch on the following: Scripture, doctrinal development, the teaching Magisterium of the Church, as well as addressing the modern and postmodern critiques of the claim that God became incarnate in Jesus of Nazareth. This objective aims to meet the Cultural Context Goal of the M. Div. Program.
- c) Personal and Spiritual Formation - The course will foster growth in terms of human and Christian maturity through the promotion of a critical and profound faith understanding of Jesus, Son of God/son of Mary, so that the spiritual and liturgical life of students may be enhanced. The course will foster maturation in the Christian faith through assigned readings and participation in the Discussion Forum so that students may come to see discipleship in Jesus Christ as a dimension of public witness. This objective aims to meet the Personal and Spiritual Formation Goal of the M.Div. Program.
- d) Capacity for Ministerial Leadership - The course will foster theological reflection on Christ the Lord so to enable the practice of ministerial and educational leadership in the Church and world by bringing to the fore key representative theologians, as well as different approaches to Christology. The course will emphasize the importance of a personal synthesis and aid in the forming of one so that students may develop an integrated approach to faith in Jesus Christ, the revelation of the triune God. The course will foster sound knowledge of Jesus Christ with the view to enhancing Christian teaching and preaching. This objective aims to meet the Capacity for Ministerial Leadership Goal for the M. Div. Program.

M.DIV. Program Students

- a) Intellectual Formation - The program shall foster sound knowledge of the revelation of God in creation, in Israel, and in the person of Jesus Christ as witnessed to by Scripture and the Church's Tradition.
- b) Cultural Context - The program shall foster an evangelical discernment of the 'signs of the times' to engage with the reality of cultural diversity in the Church and world.
- c) Personal and Spiritual Formation - The program shall foster growth in terms of human and Christian maturity, as a personal response to being a disciple of Jesus Christ and as a dimension of public witness.
- d) Capacity for Ministerial Leadership - The program shall foster theological reflection on and education for the practice of ministerial leadership in the Church and world.

MTS Program Students

- a) Intellectual Formation - The program shall foster a survey knowledge of theology in the following four areas: Foundational Theology, Sacred Scripture, Systematic Theology, and Moral/Spiritual Theology

Course Assignments and Evaluation

All written work will be graded on content (70%) and style (30%). For an “A” the written work must demonstrate a clear, discerning eye; and the prose must be clear, comprehensive, insightful, well organized, and contain few if any grammatical and/or spelling errors. For a mark of A+ the work is of publishable quality. The difference between an A and an A- can be attributable to a stylistic deficiency, a deficiency in content, or both. For a “B+” or “B,” the written work demonstrates a suitably clear presentation of the material and is adequately organized with a minimum number of grammatical and/or spelling errors. For a mark of “B-” or less, the content is deficient, the writing is not clear nor are the ideas expressed or organized very well, and there are numerous grammatical and/or spelling errors.

As regards the synopsis on The Challenge of Jesus and that on Jesus the Christ, the aim of the assignment is to demonstrate a grasp of the thesis of the book through an exposition of the important points. You may want to summarize the chapters, or you may want to focus on those chapters you consider central to the thesis. Remember, you cannot summarize the content of the book, so you need to discern the most significant aspects. A critique of the book is welcome, but not obligatory. As for the critique, the first thing I look for is a comment on some of the following: is the book readable; are the ideas expressed clearly; is the topic adequately addressed; does the book miss something that, in your opinion, should have been covered? The second thing I look for is evidence of your own appropriation of the book. How did the book influence your life or work? Did the book do anything to advance your faith understanding?

Textbooks

N.T. Wright’s The Challenge of Jesus. Downers Grove, IL: InterVarsity Press, 1999, 9-202.
 Walter Kasper’s Jesus the Christ (New Edition). New York: Continuum, 2011. You must read “The Introduction to the New Edition, Part II: The History and Destiny of Jesus Christ, and Part III: The Mystery of Jesus.

General Academic Information

Course Attendance

No credit will be given for a course if the student has been absent, for any reason whatever, from one-third or more of the lectures and/or seminars scheduled for the term. Likewise, no credit will be given if term assignments or other assignments are or remain incomplete.

Leave of Absence and Policy for Incompletes

Extensions to an incomplete grade may be granted in extenuating circumstances, but may not exceed 16 weeks following the end of the course. Students who fail to complete course work by the agreed deadline will have a grade assigned which is based on work completed.

Academic Integrity

Acts of academic dishonesty (plagiarism, cheating, etc.) are subject to an appropriate penalty. The grade “F” may be assigned to a student guilty of such acts by the professor of the course in which the infraction occurred. A second offense against academic integrity renders the student liable to automatic dismissal from NTC. Further details are available in the Academic Calendar in the Academic Misconduct Policy.

Academic Grievances

Students may appeal grades received; the procedure is outlined in the Academic Calendar in the Grade Appeal Policy. For other grievances, students will refer to the Student Grievances Policy also outlined in the Academic Calendar.

NOTE: The GPA is computed on the basis of cumulative grade point (letter) values, not percentage values. All courses are included in this calculation except those exceeding degree requirements and/or received as transfer credits from other recognized institutions.

Written Assignments - Style and Format

Newman Theological College requires that all written work be submitted in acceptable academic format and style. Please note the following regulations:

Regulations

Research papers, book reports, article summaries, reflection papers, and essays should be double-spaced, printed on one side only, and submitted on white, 8.5" x 11" paper.

A standard type style, such as Times New Roman, with a 12-point font size, must be used. The instructor will specify the most recent edition of the style manual to be used:

2. Kate Turabian, "A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations" (Chicago: University of Chicago Press).
3. Joseph Gibaldi & William Ahters, eds., "MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers" (New York: Modern Language Association of America).
4. American Psychological Association "Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association" (Washington: APA Publications).

Copies of these standard references may be purchased in the NTC bookstore.

Ignorance of standard form is not considered an acceptable excuse for deviation from required standards of format and style.
