The course will foster the development of a thoughtful, critical mind—essential to doing theology as “faith seeking understanding”—in the context of the Church and world. The course will foster the practice of the research and technical skills necessary to do acceptable oral and written theological reflection and work. The course will demonstrate the importance of the discipline of theology by examining various theologians, as well as the specialized forms or branches

- of theology (e.g., systematic, scriptural, historical, etc.). This objective aims to meet the Intellectual Information Program Goal of the M. Div. Program and the M.T.S. Program.
- b) Cultural Context - The course will promote an evangelical discernment of the 'signs of the times' to engage with the reality of cultural diversity in the Church and world, by viewing theology as follows: in relationship to Scripture, Tradition, the teaching Magisterium of the Church, historical movements, ecumenism, interfaith relations, art, etc. This objective aims to meet the Cultural Context Goal of the M. Div. Program.
  - c) Personal and Spiritual Formation - The course shall foster growth in terms of human and Christian maturity through the integration of theology with spirituality so that the student may come to see discipleship in Jesus Christ as a dimension of public witness. This objective aims to meet the Personal and Spiritual Formation Goal of the M. Div. Program.
  - d) Capacity for Ministerial Leadership - The program will foster theological reflection on and education for the practice of ministerial leadership in the Church and world by bringing to the fore key representative theologians and philosophers, as well as different types and methods of theology. The course will emphasize the importance of a personal synthesis and aid in the forming of one so that the student may develop an integrated approach to faith in Jesus Christ, the revelation of the triune God. The course will implement adult learning practices, such as assigned readings and group discussions. This objective aims to meet the Capacity for Ministerial Leadership Goal of the M. Div. Program.

Course Assignments and Evaluation

All written work will be graded on content (70%) and style (30%). For an “A” the written work must demonstrate a clear, discerning eye; and the prose must be clear, comprehensive, insightful, well organized, and contain few if any grammatical and/or spelling errors. For a mark of A+ the work is of publishable quality. The difference between an A and an A- can be attributable to a stylistic deficiency, a deficiency in content, or both. For a “B+” or “B” the written work demonstrates a suitably clear presentation of the material and is adequately organized with a minimum number of grammatical and/or spelling errors. For a mark of “B-” or less the writing is not clear nor are the ideas expressed or organized very well and there are numerous grammatical and/or spelling errors.

As regards the synopsis on The Shape of Catholic Theology, the aim of the assignment is to demonstrate a grasp of the thesis of the book through an exposition of the important points. You may want to summarize the chapters, or you may want to focus on those chapters you consider central to the thesis. Remember, you cannot summarize the content of the book, so you need to discern the most significant aspects. A critique of the book is welcome, but not obligatory. As for the critique, the first thing I look for is a comment on some of the following: is the book readable; are the ideas expressed clearly; is the topic adequately addressed; does the book miss something that, in your opinion, should have been covered? The second thing I look for is evidence of your own appropriation of the book. How did the book influence your life or work? Did the book do anything to advance your faith understanding?
