Newman Theological College offers bursaries and scholarships to new and continuing students enrolled in NTC programs and courses.

Newman Theological College bursaries and scholarships are awarded (for tuition only) based on the following criteria:

- Financial need
- Involvement in NTC community (current students) and/or
- Involvement in the Christian community (new and continuing students)
- Qualities of leadership
- Academic performance

INSTRUCTIONS:

A. Complete all parts of the application and answer all questions. If the question does not apply to you, indicate "N/A" (not applicable).

A letter addressing the following MUST accompany your application (300 words or less):

- Reason for applying for a bursary (i.e. financial need).
- Involvement in and service to the Newman Theological College community (current students) and/or
- Past and present service experience in the Christian community and plans for ministry, education or employment using your education at NTC.
 - i. Students applying for The Military and Hospitaller Order of St. Lazarus of Jerusalem MSGR. William Irwin Bursary in Ecumenical Studies must address their involvement and interest in ecumenical studies in the letter.
 - ii. Other information you see as pertinent to this application.
 - iii. Regardless of the number of bursaries you apply for, only one bursary form needs to be filled out each year.

Note: Incomplete or inaccurate applications will not be considered.

Note: Seminarians, deacons and religious in needy dioceses or religious communities may apply for bursaries. Seminarians, deacons and religious students are required to include a letter from their bishop or superior stating that their diocese or religious order needs assistance in paying for the student's tuition.

Note: Anglican seminarians and diaconal candidates are required to include a letter from their bishop stating that their Anglican diocese cannot provide the necessary financial support for their candidates, and they need assistance in the form of bursaries to help pay for their candidate's tuition.

B. Mail, courier, email, or deliver your application to the Dean of Students (contact information on the last page of this form). Do not fax your application.

C. Late applicants will be considered for any bursaries not distributed as part of the initial distribution in June. For information on the availability of such bursaries, contact the Executive Assistant at executive.assistant@newman.edu.
