FACULTY ADVISOR Form

The faculty advisor is a full or part-time instructor at Newman Theological College who has agreed to meet periodically with a student to offer advice on academic matters including:

a) Selection of topics for research papers or a thesis

b) Clarification of theological issues relating to course work, including required reading & books reviewed

c) Course planning, considering the needs and interests of the student, the structure of the curriculum and the College timetable

d) Field education requirements, alternatives and related course selections

e) Preparing for comprehensive examinations and integrative seminars

f) The methodology of research, including the effective use of library resources.

All full-time and those part-time students who are eligible to complete a degree or diploma in a given year are required to have a faculty advisor. Each student should approach the prospective advisor for acceptance, and then have him/her sign the form below. The form is to be submitted to the Registrar before September 30th 2010. Students who have not chosen a faculty advisor by that date will be assigned one by the Registrar.
